

Asset Building Community Development

Perhaps an overriding reason to consider asset development as a means of community building is that the raising of the next generation is one of the most important functions of a community. An argument can be made that an inclusive, participatory community effort to provide youth with support and internal ideals and self-discipline will sharpen citizens' focus on what a community is and does.

Asset Building Community Development

Asset Based Community Development's core idea is that communities can drive the development process themselves by identifying and mobilizing existing, but often unrecognised assets. This requires a strong commitment to community driven efforts through active citizenship and participatory democratic methods.
